Dear Potential ROOTS Recipient:

Thank you for your interest in receiving food from Missoula Food Bank & Community Center through our ROOTS-senior grocery delivery program. Missoula Food Bank & Community Center and the Department of Health and Human Services partner to deliver a free, nutritious monthly food package to seniors living on a low income.

Each package we deliver contains: juice, cereal or oatmeal, boxed and dry milk, peanut butter or dry beans, rice or pasta, chili or stew, cheese, canned fruits and vegetables and a supplement of Ensure and fresh fruit. Inventory options are limited but we will try to accommodate special dietary needs you may have.

To qualify for this program, you must:

1. Be 60 years of age or older
2. Meet income guidelines outlined on the next page.

The income information you supply is completely SELF-DECLARED: accordingly, we will not investigate your income or personal information.

Please complete both sides of the application form, make your food choices, and return the application to Missoula Food Bank & Community Center. If you have any questions about the application itself, program eligibility or the services in general, please do not hesitate to call (406) 549-0543. To speak with Senior Nutrition Coordinator, Faith Cornett, directly please call 406-541-0770.

Sincerely,

Missoula Food Bank & Community Center Staff

This project is funded (in part) under a contract with the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services. The statements herein do not necessarily reflect the opinion of the department.
